3. Mr. Chandrojoy Roy, JB Roy State Ayurvedic Medical College & Hospital, 170-172, Raja Dinendra Street, Kolkata-700004, West Bengal, for information with the Evaluation Remarks as follows:
  - Certain drawbacks have been noted in the submitted report.
  - Title - It is not fully justified regarding the optimization of treatment policy.
  - Novelty - Data from a single government hospital is not sufficient to optimize treatment policy. Objectives - Not fully achieved. Some of them are missing out, such as the cure rate, survival rate data.
  - Methodology – Data from a single government hospital is not sufficient Data analysis - Incomplete Research questions - Not mentioned Regarding data on death, the causes of death should also be mentioned. Footfalls in the OPD with respect to the prevalence of diseases in the area/state/country need to be given special mention. Any data related to the COVID pandemic as the study period also include the time of the pandemic? There is no data related to disease cure rate, survival rate, number of admission days, etc. as mentioned in the objectives. Disease names are mixed up.
  - Can use either Ayurveda term or only modern term, or a combination of both.
  - Names of certain medicines are not clear...If patent medicines are used, the names of the manufacturers need to be mentioned. Diet is specific to the disease, and not to the speciality. Details of specialist doctors are not mentioned, while mentioning the disease prevalence.
  - Enquire if there are any rule/ criteria for deciding bed strength in government hospitals.
  - It is not according to the data from a single hospital.
4. Dr. Pratap Makhija, A.D (Ay.), CCRAS, New Delhi, for information.
